Prayer of Purity

Prayers of Penitence

Confession

Celebrant As we kneel with the shepherds before the newborn Christ-child, we open our hearts in penitence and faith.

A time of silence and self-examination is kept.

All Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of Your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us;
forgive what we have been,
amend what we are,
and direct what we shall be,
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD*First Reading (Exodus 33:7-11a)

Lector The first reading is taken from the Book of Exodus, in the 33rd chapter, beginning at the 7th verse.

Moses used to take the tent and pitch it outside the camp, far off from the camp; he called it the tent of meeting. And everyone who sought the Lord would go out to the tent of meeting, which was outside the camp. Whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people would rise and stand, each of them, at the entrance of their tents and watch Moses until he had gone into the tent. When Moses entered the tent, the pillar of cloud would descend and stand at the entrance of the tent, and the Lord would speak with Moses. When all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent, all the people would rise and bow down, all of them, at the entrance of their tents. Thus the Lord used to speak to Moses face to face, as one speaks to a friend.

This is the Word of the Lord.

All Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm (Psalm 117)

STAND

v. 1 Praise the Lord, O praise the Lord, all you na-tions.

2 *For great is his steadfast love towards us,
and the faithfulness of the Lord endures forever.
Alleluia. [R]*

All
Second Reading (1 John 1)

We declare to you what was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked at and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life— this life was revealed, and we have seen it and testify to it, and declare to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was revealed to us— we declare to you what we have seen and heard so that you also may have fellowship with us; and truly our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. We are writing these things so that our joy may be complete.

This is the message we have heard from him and proclaim to you, that God is light and in him there is no darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him while we are walking in darkness, we lie and do not do what is true; but if we walk in the light as he himself is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son cleanses us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he who is faithful and just will forgive us our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

This is the Word of the Lord.

All      Thanks be to God.

Glo - ry to you, O Lord.

Celebrant

Jesus said to Peter, 'Follow me.'

Peter turned and saw the disciple whom Jesus loved following them; he was the one who had reclined next to Jesus at the supper and had said, 'Lord, who is it that is going to betray you?' When Peter saw him, he said to Jesus, 'Lord, what about him?' Jesus said to him, 'If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you? Follow me!' So the rumour spread in the community that this disciple would not die. Yet Jesus did not say to him that he would not die, but, 'If it is my will that he remain until I come, what is that to you?'

This is the disciple who is testifying to these things and has written them, and we know that his testimony is true. But there are also many other things that Jesus did; if every one of them were written down, I suppose that the world itself could not contain the books that would be written.

The Gospel of the Lord.

of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

He will come again in glory

Celebrant Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said,

"Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said,

"Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

When entering the school campus, worshippers who are:

a. Driving:

- Those who have registered* their cars with DBS should drive slowly through the main gate (Argyle Street) for the guard to verify your registration plate number;
- Those whose car plate number is not registered will have to register at the main gate guard post every Sunday.

**The School has allocated 20 parking spaces to SAC for our Sunday Service (out of the total 40 spaces on campus). As we typically have over 100 members attending the Sunday Service, this may not fully meet our needs - especially a bit difficult for families with kids and infants. To help accommodate everyone, we kindly ask that our members carpool or use* public transportation whenever possible. Please also keep in mind that other users (such as old boys, etc.) have similar needs. If we end up with more than 20 cars on Sunday, priority will be given to those who have duties on that day. Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

The Archbishop's Christmas Message 2025

Dear citizens of Hong Kong,

Gold, frankincense, and myrrh – 2000 years ago, upon seeing the rising star and learning the news of the birth of Jesus, the Magi began their long journey to Bethlehem, to offer the Christ Child three precious gifts: gold for a king, frankincense for a God, and myrrh for someone who is to die. One month ago, when the tragic fire broke out in Wang Fuk Court, countless people travelled to Tai Po, bringing with them gifts that are no less precious: donations of clothing, food, shelter, and money; volunteer help in organising relief and comforting the victims; one fireman even gave the ultimate gift of sacrifice, and lost his life fighting for a chance that others may live. In the darkest hour, we see the brightest and best shining in Hong Kong.

It is now Christmas, and the brightest and best of the sons of the morning has dawned on our darkness. As we gather with our friends and family, or perhaps as we spend time with those in need of our love, what gifts can we bring them this year?

The merciless flames have cast an invisible shadow over Hong Kong. When we hear the words 'Merry Christmas', and when we see all these beautifully decorated Christmas trees around Hong Kong, we may question, 'What is there to be merry about, when the innocent are suffering?' But the message of Christmas can often shine the brightest when we find ourselves trapped in darkness.

Jesus himself was born into a world of darkness and conflict. His birth is often shown in art as a lovely scene with adorable animals, but in reality the manger is an unhygienic place for childbirth, where Mary had to endure the pain with only Joseph by her side. A few months later, after the Magi's visit of the Holy Family, the baby Jesus had to flee with his family into Egypt in order to escape Herod's soldiers. As a young man in his 30s, Jesus would be falsely accused, persecuted, and died the gruesome death of crucifixion.

But it was precisely because Jesus suffered that God understood humanity's pain and agony. This connection made Jesus Christ the greatest gift of all: the Word has become flesh, and God is with us. After the Black Christmas of 1941, when the inmates of Stanley prayed to the cross, God was with them – Emmanuel. If we say God is love, then surely we've seen God in Hong Kong in the last month. There is nothing more Christ-like than the outpouring of love that Hong Kong witnessed after this tragedy. In a way, the Christmas spirit was truly alive this year.

But God didn't just bring us gifts on a single day, because the gift of Christ is an eternal gift. The love that was born to us 2000 years ago is still alive, even to this day! The tragedy of Tai Po has moved many of us to spring into action out of love, but this must not be a one-off event. Very soon, because our modern world give us new things to worry about every week, attention on the Tai Po victims will diminish. Their worries will remain, and it will take considerable time for the survivors to recover fully from their loss, but the world will have moved on. What then? Should we only bring gifts to others when a big tragedy happens? No, it is especially when the world has moved on, when the world has stopped paying attention, that our love is most needed.

'Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favours!' So sang the angels to the lowly shepherds, who could offer nothing but their humble hearts to Jesus as their gift. It is those who have goodness in their hearts that God favours, and our world will be filled with peace instead of suffering, if only we cooperate with God, and hold on to that lingering goodness that is in all our hearts. This Christmas, a month after the flames of darkness have stopped burning, let us keep the fire of hope and love eternal in our hearts. Let us offer our continued love and charity to everyone who needs it. 2000 years ago, the Magi brought gifts to Baby Jesus; today, we also bring gifts to those we love, and to those who need our love. In the neglected and vulnerable, we see the image of Baby Jesus, and by bringing them gifts of love, we rediscover the ancient hope that brought light and life to a dark world. This Christmas, let us offer one another a Christmas of peace, remembering that no matter how dark the world may seem, the Christ Child is here with us, laying peacefully in the manger, with his star of hope leading us ever closer to him.

Merry Christmas!

++Andrew Chan
